

Student Financial Support to Attend the URSI General Assembly

All students seeking financial support to attend the XXIX URSI General Assembly must meet the following conditions:

1. Be a full-time student working toward a degree at an institution of higher education (certification by the student's advisor is needed).
2. Be the first author and presenter of a paper accepted for oral or poster presentation at the General Assembly.
3. Fill out the request for financial support online at the time of paper submission.

The support will be in the form of free lodging (based on double-room occupancy) at the Hyatt Regency Chicago Hotel for the ten-day duration of the Assembly – a value of more than USD 1,000.

All students at any U.S. university who meet the above conditions are guaranteed of support, independent of citizenship or residency status. Their support will be provided by the United States National Committee of URSI.

A limited number of fellowships are available for students from countries other than the U.S. All qualified students are encouraged to apply for financial support. They are also urged to participate in the Student Paper Competition.
